

TIMELINE OF EVENTS

June 2017

The Arab Republic of Yemen and The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia after the meeting of their respective delegations in Riyadh, release a joint press statement stating that "A change of administration is necessary in Syria and the earlier it is, the better it will be, for Syria, The Middle East, and the world at large for the Arab Spring has had a lasting impact in the entirety of Middle East". Peoples Republic of China and The Russian Federation showcase their alignment towards Assad and have expressed that "Syria, being the Arab 'Republic' of Syria, has the right to determine what is right and what is wrong by themselves without foreign interference."

Russia has entered into a moratorium with Syria to defend the bond between their nations and has pledged 3 Billion Roubles to the government for "humanitarian" assistance.

A statement was issued by the representative of The United States in the UN saying, "The United States will decrease its contribution toward the fund that is being devoted to the Syrian cause because we strongly believe that it is not being used in the best interests of the Syrian people." The delegates of The United Kingdom and Israel were firmly in support.

In a meeting called by the United Nations Security Council, there was schism among the P5 nations of the Security Council over the issue of Syria, leading to inactivity in the UNSC.

Khaled Mashal in a press statement expressed his grief with respect to the inactivity of the global governing body and commented, “US is UN, and UN is US.”

The Independent High Electoral Commission (IHEC) of Iraq has expressed its views about conducting the elections as soon as possible and has called upon the Parliament’s approval for the task. The Parliament has after much deliberation and opposition passed this due to pressure faced from the IHEC and the nationals of Iraq.

In what is said to be a confidential meet of the IHEC leader and Fuad Masum, The Iraqi Daily reported that “IHEC to rig elections for Fuad.” The IHEC and Fuad both deny such baseless claims and call upon tangible proof to substantiate such claims which create a negative impact on their integrity.

In Ukraine's Kharkiv, demands are growing for drastic action to seal the country's eastern flank which made it all too easy for Moscow to ship equipment and soldiers into the conflict by the building of a Berlin like wall.

Raghad Hussein has called upon the long lost members of the Iraqi War Cabinet during Saddam’s reign and has officially formed the Ba’ath Party which shall be called ‘Tadmir’ and shall constitutionally contest the upcoming elections.

There have been reports and intel that large amounts of funds are flowing from the ICPC to Mosul and at the very same time an increase in the campaigning expenditure of Raghad is seen physically in Iraq.

July 2017

Mahmoud Ahmadinejad comes to power as the president of the the Iranian Republic. In a statement he says that he remembers USA's conspiracy to prevent him from coming to power.

"USA had perpetrated attacks in their own nation in 2001 which lawyers and the educated agree to in USA itself. Now that I have come to power I will make sure that Israel is a part of their white brother's country and they have land over there itself and not on our holy land. USA is yet again using the 'Sanctimonious IAEA regulations' to monopolise power in the Middle East. But I do not forget or forgive. I still remember the political conspiracy sponsored by the US", said Mahmoud.

The Ba'ath Party has sparked a people's wave, touching upon the Iraqi Invasion by the US Government in 2003 and how Saddam fought and died as martyr for Iraq. Exit Polls indicate a Ba'athist government will come to power.

As clashes intensify between the Ukrainian government forces and the paramilitary formation which were organised by the Russian Fifth Command in Donetsk and Luhansk, USA has increased lobbying for the inclusion of Ukraine as a part of the NATO formalizing the Membership Action Plan of 2008 that Ukraine and NATO had involved themselves in.

Documents from unconfirmed sources have been leaked that show that USA was coordinating with Germany And France on the drafting of an action order to mobilise troops of the NATO into Ukraine which would have been introduced in the next session of the NATO.

The Hussein party gains 351 out of 447 seats and has formed a majority government that Iraqi administration has never seen. Raghad Hussein takes oath as Prime Minister of Iraq and shall form his government in the subsequent months.

US Secretary of State meets with the President of Ukraine to speak about the funding for the construction of the $124 Million wall in Kharkiv to prevent future intrusions.

Reports and intel suggest that there is a mass supply of funds from Washington and London to Rojava, Syria - the hub of the People's Protection Unit. The Assad government suspects that the governments of The United States and The United Kingdom is involved behind this.

August 2017

Xi Jinping has risen into power, once again, and The People's Republic of China is slowly turning into a "Dictatorial regime" as commented by the Chief of Staff of the White House when asked for his comments on the recent developments. Also, The Chinese Premier has started taking executive orders by himself, which reaffirms the faith of the Chief of Staff when he remarked China to be under the rule of a Dictator.

Iraqi Prime Minister, Raghad Hussein meets Chinese Premiere, Xi Jinping in what is said to be an 'emergency meet' by media personnel. The meeting was led by high level persuasive diplomats spearheaded by the respective leaders.

No Press Statement after the meeting astonishes the World Media and questions are raised. The Russian Foreign Affairs Minister sarcastically hints at the Chinese Premiere that "Our Close friend and ally should definitely inform the Mighty Russian Federation of the discussions due to our strong and common roots"

The Chinese Press Correspondent responds to this comment by saying:

"The Peoples Republic of China is a force stronger than ever. It shall not look back any further and with one of the largest standing army and required personnel coupled with high quality ammunition it is ready to go to any extent to protect its friends."

The remarks by the Chinese Press Corespondent poses a major question on the Sino-Russian Alliance that has been so strong for so many years.

President Trump, in a statement says that "The United States government and administration shall do its all to free the Syrian people"

The People's Protection Unit has launched an all out offensive against the Assad Administration and has attacked their stronghold, the city of Raqqa. Their ammunition and artillery is better than ever, reports suggest that the funding carried out in July were truncated to them, there is no confirmation yet though on this matter.

Abdel Basset Turki al-Hadithi has been re-elected as the Chairman of the Central Bank of Iraq. Speculators in The United States of America feel that it is not in their best interests.

In an economic summit held in Iraq by Abdel Basset Turki al-Hadithi ,Jens Weidmann,Jaime Caruana,Raghuram Rajan and Zhou Xiaochuan were invited among other financial leaders. The Agenda for this exclusive meet was “Sustainability in the Middle East”

Jens Weidmann after visiting Iraq, remarked that “Middle East is in tatters, politically, socially, economically and in every way possible. The Bank of International Settlements shall provide all of its guidance and help required for their economic sustainability because that is why The BIS exists”

September 2017

The following headline from Haaretz has created a lot of unanswered questions and put the strong Israeli-US Relations at unease.

“Bennett Calls Out Trump For His ‘Hold Back’ Statement; Calls POTUS An Interferer.”

The head of the Jewish Home party Naftali Bennett warns today that any peace agreement with the Palestinians is doomed to fail. He also lashed out at Donald Trump for his words and says, “He’s an untrustworthy American who’s interfering where he shouldn’t”

The CEO of Wild Horse and Raghad Hussein have recently met in Baghdad. Rumours of a “deal” being signed are afloat in the air, no confirmation on anything has been received.

The Trump administration has expressed its qualms about Israel as well as the Peace Agreement.

Trump has also stated that “Any threat to the free Syrian Citizens will be considered as a direct threat to the United States of America.”

The United States of America acquires intelligence that Iraq is supplying terrorist cells present in Syria and The Middle East with technical assistance for being developed into potential ‘dirty bombs.’

The United States of America lobbies with The North Atlantic Treaty Organisation to intervene in Syria in lieu of the humanitarian crisis prevalent there. However, France and Germany remain united against the decision and prevent any action by NATO. France and Germany agree to prolonged economic and humanitarian assistance.

Cyprus Daily has reported that the vessel caught at Cyprus was of British origin. The United Kingdom denies all such claims.

BBC news reports - “Russia could likely manage to score a couple of intercepts and even shoot down some US assets, but overall the Russian contingent in Syria cannot stand up to the US, let alone the entire coalition of nations fighting ISIS. Russia also has a strong navy that could target US air bases in the region, but that would require for Russia to fire on Turkey.

Russia wouldn't risk so much over Syria, which is not an existential dense interest for them, but a foreign adventure to distract from Russia's stalled economy and social problems”

The Turkish Prime Minister leaves for his foreign tour where he will visit Kazakhstan, Mongolia, Finland over a week and will end with a three day long discussion in Moscow.

The North Atlantic Treaty Organisation calls upon for a periodic meet of all member nations with agenda being “Re-evaluating The North Atlantic Treaty Organisations military and economic capabilities”. The timing of the meet is clashing with Bianli’s foreign tour.

All North Atlantic Treaty Organisation members attend the meet except Turkey. The North Atlantic Treaty Organisation condemns Turkey’s action and calls upon Turkey to provide a plausible explanation for their absence in these times of immense geopolitical turmoil.

November 2017

Abdel Basset Turki al-Hadithi has launched a widespread demonetisation scheme after visiting Germany and having a weeklong meeting with Jens Weidmann. The Iraqi peoples and other Middle Eastern analysts and financiers have expressed their concern and doubts behind this action of Mr. Turki.

The political opposition of Saudi Arabia has joined hands with Hezbollah Al-Hejaz and has launched an all out offensive against the rule of the Assad. This opposition has called upon the Sunni Islamist activists, liberal critics, including an underground green party, the Shia minority – particularly in the Eastern Province; and long-standing tribal and regional particularistic opponents to form a strong opposition.

The Shia Minority in the Eastern Province along with Hezbollah Al-Hejaz has in an

News reports by Wiki leaks leader Julian Assange show that The US Government through offshore accounts in the Cayman Islands were involved in the helping of the main political opponents of Ahmadinejad.

Jinping has set up a deal with Iraq in which Iraq would export upto 500,000 barrels per day of crude oil to China and in turn import goods of an equivalent value. Iraq's oil exports had fallen by more than half ,despite its production matching that of Saudi Arabia when the western powers imposed sanctions. Through this deal Iraq rises as one of the leaders of the OPEC.

Iraq's oil production shall further rise by 65%. By this act of exchange between Iraq and China, Iraq comes closer to a status of oil domination in the world in the sphere of oil manufacturing and production. China sees in Iraq its biggest confidant.

The Syrian Arab Army along with Hezbollah have captured more than 3 km of territory in South Eastern countryside of Damsacus pushing south towards the Iraqi border along with Liwa Fatemiyoun. Iraq has not reacted peacefully and has expressed its concern over this issue.

Seeing the current situation in Saudi Arabia where the largest oil field of Saudi has been captured by opposition and now Iraq has risen to a domination status, Iraqi Prime Minister says that "Iraq now dominates oil trade in the Middle East"

December 2017

Seeing this as an opportunity to strike, The Free Syrian Army has attacked the capital city of Damascus. The Russian forces present in the region were not enough in number to fight this attack, for they had been called back to contain the situation in Ukraine. But, the Free Syrian Army, stronger than ever, possessing high quality artillery has reclaimed their land in a battle that went on for four days straight, killing over hundreds and injuring thousands have toppled the Assad regime. Salim Idris, the Free Syrian Army leader now leads the government of Syria.

The demonetisation followed in Iraq has led to the formation of The Khaleeji, that was proposed as a common currency for the Gulf Cooperation Countries (GCC). Iraq being the dominator of oil trade in The Middle East has abolished Petrodollar and has undertaken to establish a single, new currency in Iraq and trade oil in Khaleeji hereafter.

The Security Council expresses its concern with respect to the recent events.
